

Invitation to the 17th Congress of the European Civil Status Officers (EVS)

The free circulation in the European Union: echoes in the civil status and in the administration of the people

Italy, Castel San Pietro Terme (BO), 7th-8th-9th June 2017

Dear Sirs,
Dear Colleagues,

the 17th Congress of the European Association of the Civil Status Officers (EVS) will take place in Italy, in Castel San Pietro Terme, on 7th-8th-9th June 2017.

You are kindly invited to participate to the congress.

The themes will be of general interest and speakers from different European countries will be present .

We are particularly pleased to have , among the guests, in addition to the Civil Status Officers coming from Italy and abroad , the representatives of the Ministry of the Interior and of other institutions of the different European Countries, as well as the representatives of various EU countries.

The Congress will be again a privileged opportunity for the exchange of information on the national laws and experiences on the civil status subject matter and also for the solutions of doubts and questions.

The main themes of the Congress will be developed in view of the encouragement of the streamlining and of the simplification of the procedures in the subject of the civil status, in the interest of the European citizens.

The arrival of the participants from abroad is foreseen on Tuesday 6th June. On Wednesday 7th June (offered by ANUSCA) there will be a visit to the town and an excursion. The beginning of the Congress will be on the morning of Thursday 8th June and the leaving is foreseen on Saturday 10th June. All the Guests will have the accommodation in Castel San Pietro Terme at the 'Anusca Palace Hotel and at the near Hotel Castello. The Congress will be held in the ANUSCA Academy in Castel San Pietro Terme.
